The terms of this Privacy Policy govern the relationship between you and HeartWeb regarding the information you provide to us when using the Application. By clicking 'Accept' when downloading this application you agree to be bound by these terms.

iLungScan™ Privacy Policy

Heartweb Pty Ltd, ACN 146 184 812 (HeartWeb or we) is the provider of the iLungScan™ application and service (the Application).

You consent to our collection, storage, use and disclosure of personal information as set out in this Privacy Policy.

A. Information you collect from your patient

You may collect, and we may store, personal information of your patient including health information, as described below.

1. Patient Details and Health Information: when preparing an iLungScan™ Report you will collect personal details and information from your patient, including health information (Patient Information). Patient Information is collected and stored through the use of web logs, which are files on our web servers that record actions taken on the Application.

B. Information we collect from you

We may collect and store personal information from you as described below. You consent to the recording and storage of the communications described in paragraphs B.1 to B.5 below.

1. Registration: when you register to use the Application, we collect personal information such as your username, e-mail address and other information that help us confirm that it is you accessing your user account.

2. Device: if you use the Application on a Device, we may collect your unique device identifier and other information, such as username, telephone, country, location or e-mail address.

3. Use of Application: when you use our Application, HeartWeb collects and stores certain information that you provide directly, including Patient Information and your profile information. This information is collected and stored through the use of web logs, which are files on our web servers that record actions taken on our Application.

4. In-App Communications: you may be able to send communications 'in-app' to communicate and share information with HeartWeb and other users of the Application. We may record and store archives of these communications on HeartWeb's servers.

5. Purchasing the Application: when you purchase a licence to use the Application, Apple will collect the billing and financial information necessary to process your charges. The information Apple may collect include without limitation, credit card details, postal addresses and e-mail address depending on your method of payment. HeartWeb does not collect or store this information.

We do not collect sensitive information, other than health information, including information on political beliefs and religious beliefs. You must not communicate such information using the Application.

C. Disclosure of Information

1. Operation of Application: we may use information collected from you in the following ways:

- (a) to register your account for the Application;
- (b) to administer the Application and improve functionality;
- (c) to enable in-Application user-to-user private messaging;
- (d) to respond to customer support inquiries;
- (e) to send administrative messages regarding the Application such as updates to the Application;
- (f) to communicate notices of updates to our Terms of Service and Privacy Policy; and
- (g) to inform you about new products or promotional offers from HeartWeb.

2. Username: your HeartWeb username will be made public and may appear in postings in Group communications and in the 'Users' section in-Application or during in-Application user-to-use communications.

3. Promotional emails: we may send you promotional e-mails directly. You have the choice to 'opt out' by following the unsubscribe instructions provided in the promotional communication you receive or by editing your profile preferences.

4. Third Party Service Providers: HeartWeb engages certain local and offshore third parties to perform functions and services on our behalf, including hosting services and customer support. We may share your information with such third party service providers to the extent necessary to perform these functions and services.

We will not disclose or use Patient Information in the ways described in paragraphs C. 1-C.3 above.

You must only disclose Patient Information to a third party if such disclosure is in compliance with our Terms of Service and with applicable local, state, national and international laws, rules and regulations. Without limitation, any such disclosure must be for the purpose of providing a health service to the patient and with that patient's consent.

If you cease to use the Application or are denied access for any reason, you do not have the right to have HeartWeb return the information entered into the Application by you. HeartWeb will use its best efforts to delete such information upon your request.

D. Transfer of Information Overseas

HeartWeb stores information about site visitors and account users on servers located either within Australia or overseas. You consent to the transfer of your information, which may include without limitation, Patient Information and your personal information, to offshore service providers and third party contractors acting on behalf of HeartWeb from time to time for the purposes of providing our services to you.

You agree to obtain the consent of your patient to transfer the Patient Information to us and to transfer the Patient Information overseas as described in paragraphs A.1 and D above.

E. Sale or Merger

In the event that HeartWeb undergoes a business transition, such as a merger, acquisition by another company, or sale of all or a portion of its assets, we may transfer all of your information, including personal information, to the purchaser or successor company in such transition.

F. Minors

The Application is not intended for minors under the age of 18 and we do not knowingly collect any personal information from such minors.

G. Privacy Policy Changes

Although most changes are likely to be minor, HeartWeb may change its Privacy Policy from time to time, and in HeartWeb's sole discretion.

HeartWeb encourages users and visitors to check this page frequently for any changes to its Privacy Policy. Your continued use of this Application or website after any change in this Privacy Policy will constitute your acceptance of such change.

H. Legal Compliance

You have a right to access most personal information we hold about you and if we deny access in some circumstances we will tell you why. To request access, please contact our Privacy Officer as set out below.

I. Further Information

Please contact us to ask for access to your information or if you have a complaint concerning your information privacy or would like more information about our approach to privacy.
